

VICTIM'S BILL OF RIGHTS

The California Constitution, Article 1, Section 28, confers certain rights to victims of crime as they are defined in the law. Those rights include:

- 1 Fairness and Respect

To be treated with fairness and respect for his or her privacy and dignity, and to be free from intimidation, harassment, and abuse throughout the criminal or juvenile justice system.
- 2 Protection from the Defendant

To be reasonably protected from the defendant and persons acting on behalf of the defendant.
- 3 Victim Safety Considerations in Setting Bail and Release Conditions

To have the safety of the victim and the victim's family considered in fixing the amount of bail and release conditions for the defendant.
- 4 The Prevention of the Disclosure of Confidential Information

To prevent the disclosure of confidential information or records to the defendant, the defendant's attorney, or any other person acting on behalf of the defendant, which could be used to locate or harass the victim or the victim's family, or which discloses confidential communications made in the course of medical or counseling treatment, or which are otherwise privileged or confidential by law.
- 5 Refusal to Be Interviewed By the Defense

To refuse an interview, deposition, or discovery request by the defendant, the defendant's attorney, or any other person acting on behalf of the defendant, and to set reasonable conditions on the conduct of any such interview to which the victim consents.
- 6 Conference with the Prosecution and Notice of Pretrial Disposition

To receive reasonable notice of and to reasonably confer with the prosecuting agency, upon request, regarding the arrest of the defendant, the charges filed, and the determination whether to extradite the defendant; upon request, to be notified of and informed before any pretrial disposition of the case.
- 7 Notice of and Presence At, Public Proceedings

To receive reasonable notice of all public proceedings, including juvenile delinquency proceedings, upon request, at which the defendant and the prosecutor are entitled to be present; and to receive notice of all parole or other post-conviction release proceedings; and to be present at all such proceedings.
- 8 Appearance at Court Proceedings and Expression of Views

To be heard, upon request, at any proceeding, including a juvenile delinquency proceeding, involving a post-arrest release decision, a plea, sentencing, a post-conviction release decision, or any proceeding in which a right of the victim is an issue.

- 9 Speedy Trial and Prompt Conclusion of the Case To a speedy trial and prompt and final conclusion of the case and any related post-judgment proceedings.
- 10 Provision of Information to the Probation Department To provide information to a probation department official conducting a pre-sentence investigation concerning the impact of the offense on the victim and the victim's family, and any sentencing recommendations, before the sentencing of the defendant.
- 11 Receipt of Pre-Sentence Report To receive, upon request, the pre-sentence report when available to the defendant, except for those portions made confidential by law.
- 12 Information About Conviction, Sentence, Incarceration, Release, and Escape To be informed, upon request, of the conviction, sentence, place, and time of incarceration or other disposition of the defendant, the scheduled release date of the defendant, and the escape by the defendant from custody.
- 13 Restitution Restitution is already an existing victim right in the California Constitution. Proposition 9 eliminates the authority of the court to refuse to order victim restitution. [Previously, a court could refuse to order victim restitution if there were compelling and extraordinary reasons to not order it).
- 14 The Prompt Return of Property To the prompt return of property when no longer needed as evidence.
- 15 Notice of Parole Procedures and Release on Parole To be informed of all parole procedures, to participate in the parole process, to provide information to the parole authority, and to be notified, upon request, of the parole or other release of an offender.
- 16 Safety of Victim and Public are Factors in Parole Release To have the safety of the victim, the victim's family, and the general public considered before any parole or other post-judgment release decision is made.
- 17 Information About These 16 Rights To be informed of all 16 of the above rights.
